excerpt from sentences and thinking a practice book in sentence making sentences and thinking is a textbook for the first term of freshman english although it could be used as a review of fundamentals at the end of the high school course it is designed primarily for the college freshman who can scarcely be said to have mastered fundamentals in composition but who nevertheless tends to regard himself as sufficiently acquainted with unity coherence and emphasis it is true that the large rhetorics are also designed for the college freshman but too often they are obsessed with the sacred need of comprehensiveness or adhere to the language and modes of thought of the old mechanical rhetoric the authors of this little book instead of seeking comprehensiveness have sought absolute essentials instead of following tradition blindly have worked out a new approach to freshman rhetoric the substance being old of course but the mode of presentation it is hoped fresh and attractive because it is philosophical in a simple way when the freshman comes to college he is prepared to exchange his excellent high school conviction that authority is the soundest basis of belief for the equally excellent college conviction that blind faith is the one unpardonable sin and independent inquiry into the nature of things the prerequisite to all progress we have asked the freshman not to master rules but to think out the reasons behind the rules in terms of the psychology of the human mind about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
